To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Jonathan Casas who has served on our staff for the last 2 ½ years. During that time we have become friends and developed a strong working relationship.

Jonathan is an excellent and dynamic musician who conveys his heartfelt faith regularly in the worship of our church. He is an outstanding vocalist and excellent keyboardist. Additionally, he is knowledgeable of sound and electronics. His work with the music in our praise team has been very effective. Also, he has served well as our choirs' accompanist and has done a great job directing our children's choir.

Moreover, he exhibits sincere and well-developed people skills. His assignments with us have included visitation ministry, where he consistently showed deep compassion with personable attentiveness in his outreach to the sick and infirm of our church.

Jon is a good team player, very hard working, and faces challenges with integrity and fortitude. He is reliable and conscientious. We will miss his beautiful spirit-filled music and wish him well in his ongoing ministry.

Sincerely,

Dr. Randall Andersen, Pastor

RA/mw
